ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICE PERSONNEL REGULATION

NUMBER

11 March 1952

5. EMPLOYMENT OF CONSULTANTS

- A. Quoted below is a memorandum dated 29 February 1952 directed to the Deputy and Assistant Directors from the Director of Central Intelligence, a copy of which has been forwarded to the undersigned by the Deputy Director (Administration):

"Please instruct personnel under your supervision to make no approach to any person respecting service as a CIA Consultant without your clearance, and through you my approval."

- B. All Division Chiefs (and in the case of the General Services Division, the Chiefs of the two Branches) of Administrative Service will instruct all personnel under their supervision that no contacts will be made with any persons regarding possible service as CIA Consultants and any such matters will be taken up with the Chief, Administrative Service, who will take whatever further action is appropriate.
